Dog Fouling

Unfortunately dog fouling has become an issue again, a number of children have come into pre-school having stepped in poo. The Parish Council have spoken to Fenland District Council on our behalf, subsequently one of their dog wardens has been to visit us. Fenland introduced Dog Control Orders to provide additional powers, the Council has the right to issue fixed penalty notices to those irresponsible dog owners who choose not to abide by the new Orders. They ask all dog owners to remove their pets fouling and dispose of it in a bin, put dogs on a lead if the dog is causing a nuisance or when instructed to do so by an authorised Officer of the Council. The dog warden will take action if dog fouling is reported to them. Fines of £50 are given to offenders and if they do not pay they will be taken to Court and can face a fine of up to £1,000. If you wish to forward a complaint please contact them on 01354 654321 or e-mail them at: environmentalservicerequests@fenland.gov.uk
