

The lonely frog

Once upon a time there lived a frog. He loved the swamp. It was dark one day and the frog felt lonely but he saw something it had wings and made a spooky noise like wooo.

It was coming towards him. He saw that it had a beak then he realised that it was an owl. He started running because he thought he was going to eat him up but he was a friendly owl he wanted to be friends with him. Now he is not lonely and they lived happily ever after.
